What sets our Pediatric Medical Specialty Department Apart

The Pediatric Medical Specialty Unit serves a variety of patient populations, including patients experiencing eating disorders, type 1 diabetes management, pediatric epilepsy and general medical issues.

As part of the state's academic healthcare system, our patient population varies in acuity. With the wide variety of patients, each nurse has the opportunity for continuous learning opportunities. Nurses are highly involved in collaboration with physician teams and our ancillary patient support teams.

Unique Care You Will Provide

- Disordered eating population requiring long term stays
- Pediatric epilepsy monitoring
- Diabetes Management education
